

BOOK THREE

With two weeks to the 4th of July, Alicia Averys returns to the acres of Gettysburg where her mind-traveling ability takes her through firefly fields and on a quest to explore a hidden secret on the acres.

While her family questions how a cavern lay under the acres without anyone knowing, Alicia follows the path of her two cousins, Abigail and Russell, who explored the cavern more than a hundred years in the past. Alicia can't change the fate of her cousins, but she can learn why only one cousin walked out of the cavern alive.
